

JASPER COURIER.

W. S. H. FARVIN, Advertising and Collecting Agent, No. 80 West Fourth St., is our agent in Cincinnati.

BOY WANTED!

A steady, intelligent boy can have a good opportunity of learning an excellent business by applying at this office immediately.

Job Printing.

We are prepared to give prompt attention to all kinds of Job or Book printing. Any description of blanks, receipts, bill heads, store, stallion or jack bills can be forthcoming on the shortest notice, in the most approved style, and on reasonable terms.

We are informed that the necessary steps have been taken to procure an organ for the St. Joseph Catholic Church in this place. It is to be ready for the first of May. This, it is believed, will lend a new and increased interest to the devotional exercises held there.

This, it is believed, will w and increased interest to tional exercises held there. tion is doubtless well founded. ion for this purpose has long tained by the ministrations of the re and eminent churches at Europe and on this Conti- he organ is a noble instru- its tendency to intensify and e the services of the sanctuary eminently entitled to the first in its class. The rich, solemn of the organ, blending with the singing of devout worshippers, fits the soul for communion with Deity, and attunes the spirit to contemplate in fervent aspiration, that better country where angelic choristers and the redeemed from among men raise a yet nobler anthem.

Discharged.—Lindsay Elkins and William B. Elkins, who had for some days been confined in the Jail of this county, on an indictment for murder, were on Friday, the 12th inst., released on a writ of habeas corpus. On a hearing, the charge against the former was committed to manslaughter; as accordingly admitted to bail. The latter was acquitted, the evidence considered insufficient to warrant detention.

Same day, George Windner, in custody of the sheriff on charge, also obtained a hearing of habeas corpus, and, as no valid testimony was adduced against him.

Elkins will stand his trial together at the next term of Circuit Court.

Arrival.—New Store. From Cincinnati, has a first class merchant tail-ment in our growing town. Large and select stock of every fashionable goods, which he keeps up to order in the best and the most reasonable terms. His reputed business capacity and experience in his line of business, we are warranted in predicting for Mr. Marz a large share of public patronage.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. E. R. Day, of N. Albany, in to-day's paper. Our merchants dealing in books or stationary will find Mr. Day a pleasant and accommodating gentleman, and ready to sell to them as cheap as the cheapest. Give him a call.

Mr. Kennedy, of Md., made a speech in the U. S. Senate on Friday, praising the Know Nothing party and in favor of the Lecompton Constitution.

We see by the papers that Hon. William H. English has made an elaborate speech in the House of Representatives against the Lecompton Constitution.

Murder.

Peter Doeler, a German, living near Troy in this county, committed murder on Tuesday last, by stabbing an old lady named Switzer in her side with a pocket knife. The knife penetrated her lungs and stomach, and she died in a few hours. N. Marks, Esq., held the inquest on Wednesday, at which the above facts were elicited. Doeler was to have been examined before Esquire Marks on Wednesday night, but made his escape before the examination commenced. Doeler is a man about 40 years of age, about 5 feet 6 or 8 inches high, with black hair and dark complexion. He came to this county from Cincinnati some four years since. He fled to Kentucky. His pursuers were prevented from entering the house where it was supposed he was secreted by a man who threatened to shoot them if they entered, and before a warrant could be obtained the murderer had fled.

Cannelton Reporter.

FOR YOUR

Daughter, Sister or Friend. Home Magazine.

Edited by T. S. ARTHUR and VIRGINIA B. ARTHUR. For choice and elegant literature, high moral tone, peculiar adaptation to the home circles of our land, freshness, originality and cheapness, this Magazine is acknowledged, on all hands, to be without a rival. It is equal in the beauty of its typography and the richness of its embellishments to the most ambitious and dearest of our Magazines, while it claims to lead all of them in many essential features. Its correctness and exquisite beauty. Its colored steel fashion plates were unrivalled in 1857. They will maintain this superiority in 1858. Volume XI began in January.

TERMS.—$2 a year in advance. Four copies for $6; twelve copies for $15, and one extra to the getter up of the club. Specimens sent free to all who wish to subscribe or to make up clubs. Address T. S. Arthur & Co., 103, Walnut street, Philadelphia.

DR. R. M. WELMAN, CORNER OF NEWTON AND HARRISON STS., JASPER, INDIANA.

IS still at his old home, and always ready to attend those who may want his services, and render them to the utmost of his ability.

To many of his patrons he would say: Friends, don't forget the DOLLAR. If I served you in sickness and adversity, please remember me in your health and prosperity. If the dollar is not on hand I will take hogs or cattle on account.

March 19, 1858. R. M. WELMAN.

Blackwood's Magazine

AND THE

BRITISH QUARTERLY

REVIEWS.

GREAT INDUCEMENTS TO SUBSCRIBE!

COST REDUCED 60 to 75 per Cent!

L. SCOTT & Co., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz—

The London Quarterly [Conservative.]

The Edinburgh Review [Whig.]

The North British Review [Free Church.]

The Westminster Review [Liberal.]

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine [Tory.]

These periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—

Whig, Tory, and Radical—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion,

they stand, as they ever have stood, un-valled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

Early Copies.

The receipt of ADVANCE SHEETS from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about

as soon as the original editions.

TERMS. (Regular Prices.)

For any one of the four Reviews, $3 00

For any two of the four Reviews, 5 00

For any three of the four Reviews, 7 00

For all four of the Reviews, 8 00

For Blackwood's Magazine, 3 00

For Blackwood and three Reviews, 9 00

For Blackwood and the four Reviews, 10 00

Payments to be made in all cases in advance. Money current in the State where issued will be received at par.

Postage.

The postage on any part of the United States will be but TWENTY FOUR cents a year for Blackwood, and but fourteen cents

a year for each of the Reviews.

At the above prices the periodicals will be furnished for 1858.

Splendid Offer

For 1857 and 1858 together.

Unlike the more ephemeral Magazines of the day, these Periodicals lose little by age,

and a full year of the Nos (with no omissions) for 1857, may be regarded nearly as valuable as for 1858. We propose to furnish the two years at the following EXTREME-

LY LOW RATES, viz—

For Blackwood's Magazine, $4 50*

For any one Review, 4 00

For any two Reviews, 6 00

For Blackwood and one Review, 7 00

For Blackwood and two Reviews, 9 00

For three Reviews, 8 00

For Blackwood and three Reviews, 12 00

For the four Reviews, 11 00

For Blackwood and the four Reviews, 14 00

*To avoid fractions, 85 may be remitted

for Blackwood, for which we will forward

that work for both years, POST PAID.

N. B.—The price in Great Britain of the five Periodicals above named is about $81

per annum.

As we shall never again be likely to offer

such inducements as those here presented,

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!

Remittances must, in all cases, be made direct to the Publishers, for at these prices no commission can be allowed to agents. Address,

LEONARD SCOTT & Co.,

JENKINS & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS

IN TEAS ONLY,

PHILADELPHIA.

The new crop of Tea is now arriving,

and selling much below the high rates of the past year; the present therefore opens with the pleasing prospect of our again being able to furnish, as good an article for the price, as formerly. We also take pleasure in announcing that we have concluded to extend the time on small bills, heretofore sold on two and three months, to three and four months credit.

Thousands of Grocers and general Store

keepers now sell Teas in our Metallic Packages, and the number is constantly increasing, notwithstanding the strong prejudice that once existed against them put up in this convenient form. This unexampled success is the legitimate result of a business uniformly done, for a long term of years upon just and fair principles, and especially with an eye to that wholesome one of "SMALL

PROFITS AND QUICK RETURNS."

Teas being a perishable article, dealers are recommended to order small and frequent bills.

Those who still prefer the old way, are furnished with teas in the original halfcheests, at three cents per lb. less than in Metallic Packages.

as Traveling Agent—his place being supplied by another. JENKINS & CO.
